

Now balancing your health has become even easier.

Green is great for you, red is not as good, and yellow is somewhere in-between. So add a little variety in your drinking routine.

Adults only — artificially sweetened beverages and 2% milk are considered yellow items.